

David T. Martineau

A 2nd generation oil/gas professional, David has over 29 years of E & P experience with a strong history of field optimization, operations, and acquisitions through out many basins with his emphasis in East Texas, the Upper Gulf Coast and Coalbed Methane in the Rockies.

In 2003, David established Martineau Petroleum, Inc., operating 400 wells in Texas, Louisiana, and Mississippi. Before founding Martineau Petroleum he worked at Kerr-McGee (Oryx), he was a production engineer overseeing water floods in North-Central Texas and gas properties on the Texas gulf coast. He also sat on the A&D and EHS teams.

Currently, David is Founder and Manager of EnRes Capital. EnRes has multiple funds that provide equity and debt financing for sub$100MM transactions. David, also, serves as a managing member of Greenway Royalty Partners. Greenway is a privately held fund focusing on financing small to micro-cap oil/gas companies.

Active in professional associations: David is a member of SPE, SIPES, TIPRO, and The Texas Alliance. He sits on the University of Texas, Jackson School of Geosciences advisory board. David was named a “Rising Star” in the energy sector by D-CEO Magazine. The Texas Alliance of Energy Producers presented him with the “Today’s Leader” award. David was recently inducted into the University of Mississippi School of Engineering Hall of Fame.

David holds a Bachelor of Science in Geological Engineering from the University of Mississippi and a Master of Science degree in Geology from the University of Texas.

He lives in Austin, Texas with his wife, Ali and their two daughters, Caroline (21) and Katie (19) that both attend Ole Miss.