

Dennis Kissler, SVP Trading Division of BOK Financial

After serving 12 years on the CME trading floor (as an independent floor trader), owning a major commodities brokerage firm, with offices in 6 states, working college summers on an oil & gas drilling rigs in western Okla, I've learned a lot about the oil and gas trading industry. Being with BOKF for over 15 years my passion is in analytical research and trading crude oil and natural gas futures & derivatives. I have over 25 years' experience in Risk Management through hedging techniques that minimize price risk for Energy producers and end users. Utilizing both exchange traded futures & options as well as swaps and OTC derivatives.
