

Jeffrey Miller '85

Fort Worth, Texas

Jeffrey Miller is co-founder, CEO and managing partner of Vortus Investment Advisers, LLC, a Fort Worth-based private equity firm focused on investments in the lower/middle market upstream energy industry in North America. A 1985 Magna Cum Laude graduate of Texas A&M University with a BS in Petroleum Engineering, Jeffrey began his career as a petroleum engineer with Exxon and now has over 30 years of significant financial, managerial, operational and technical experience in the global upstream industry. Jeffrey, who also holds an MBA from Columbia Business School, is an active Champions Council member and has generously supported capital projects including E.B. Cushing Stadium and the Davis Player Development Center's expansion. A walk-on for the Aggie track and field program during his time in Aggieland, Jeffrey also serves on the Advisory Board for the Department of Petroleum Engineering. Jeffrey and his wife, Susan, have two Aggie children who are current Petroleum Engineering students.
